

DIRECTIONS

Please Note: There is no rafting in Gatlinburg or Pigeon Forge. The actual rafting location is 26 miles northeast of Gatlinburg. Please stop by our Gatlinburg location for a detailed map to the river.

Directions from Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge:

Go to traffic light #3 in Gatlinburg. Take Highway 321 North. Go 18 miles till it dead ends at a stop sign (Cosby, TN). Turn left and go 2 miles (you're still on Hwy 321 N.). Turn right onto Foothills Parkway. Take Foothills Parkway 6 miles to Interstate 40. Get on I-40 east bound which is to your right. Take I-40 about 2 miles to your first exit (exit #447 Hartford Rd.). Exit and turn right. Go exactly 1.1 miles. You'll see a big stone sign that says, "White Water Rafting" on the left. Turn left into the driveway. Go to the bottom of the hill and we are on the right.

Directions from Knoxville, TN:

Take I-40 east to exit #447 and turn right. Go exactly 1.1 miles. You'll see a big stone sign that says, "White Water Rafting" on the left. Turn left into the driveway. Go to the bottom of the hill and we are on the right.

Directions from Asheville, NC:

Take I-40 west to second exit in Tennessee, Exit #447. Exit and turn left. Go 100 yards to a stop sign (Exxon on left). Turn right and go exactly 1.2 miles. You'll see a big stone sign that says, "White Water Rafting" on the left. Turn left into the driveway. Go to the bottom of the hill and we are on the right.

Directions from Maggie Valley, NC:

Take Hwy 276 to I-40 west. Exit and turn left. Go 100 yards to a stop sign (Exxon on left). Turn right and go exactly 1.2 miles. You'll see a big stone sign that says, "White Water Rafting" on the left. Turn left into the driveway. Go to the bottom of the hill and we are on the right.